Public Warning – Fraudulent E-Mail

HAMILTON, BERMUDA – On Tuesday 8 March 2022, the Bermuda Monetary Authority (Authority or BMA) was made aware of a fraudulent e-mail targeted at Bermuda’s financial services entities which falsely gives that appearance of coming from accounting@bma.bm along with the subject line stating, “Reminder: Unpaid Invoice!”. This is not a legitimate email address for the BMA.

The fraudulent e-mail misappropriates the name of the Authority and attempts to trick recipients into providing information about any outstanding balances owed to the Authority.

A report has been filed with the Bermuda Police Service.

The Authority wishes to advise the public that it would not make this request, that any e-mails that make this request should be regarded as phishing attempts and that the public should avoid clicking on any links within these e-mails.

Media Contact: Marianne Suschak-Matvey, Director, Communications and Public Relations; Direct line: (441) 278-0642; Cellular: (441)704-4117; E-mail: msmatvey@bma.bm
