The Bermuda Monetary Authority would like to inform the public that effective immediately, the Authority will no longer be selling bulk circulation currency which includes circulation banknotes and circulation coins to individuals.

Bulk banknotes are defined as more than one bundle (100 pieces) per denomination (based on availability) per year. Circulation coins are available for sale in pre-packaged full denomination sets.

Please note the Authority also will no longer be shipping circulation products to overseas purchasers.

The Authority will continue to issue circulation notes and coins only to Bermuda commercial banks.
