

21 August 2023

NOTICE

Cessation of Sale of Circulation Currency

The Bermuda Monetary Authority (Authority or BMA) confirms that from the date of this Notice, the Authority will no longer sell circulation currency directly to the public. This includes the sale of circulation banknotes and circulation coins, except for circulation blister packs and specimen sets (which will continue to be available for sale).

The Authority will continue to issue circulation notes and coins only to Bermuda banks¹.

¹ This does not include digital platforms.